

I have my telephone number listed on the no-call list with the Indiana State Attorney General's office. I do not want this Indiana law to be changed or modified. I do not want to be bothered or harrassed with unwanted telephone calls. Since I had our number added to the no-call list, I have enjoyed much more peaceful evenings and weekends at home.